

The Journal of Gemmology

Contents

John Chisholm, Editor 1973-85		2
A description of ruby from Nepal	R. R. Harding and K. Scarratt	3
On the identification of hollow natural pearls and non-nucleated cultured pearls	J. M. Duroc-Danner	11
Seiko synthetic emerald	S. J. Kennedy	14
An andalusite anomaly	R. K. Mitchell	18
An improved sample holder and its use in the distinction of natural and synthetic ruby as well as natural and synthetic amethyst	K. Schmetzer	20
Accidental diamond coatings	P. J. Abramson	34
Notes from the Laboratory	K. Scarratt	35
Blue and green beryls (aquamarines and emeralds) of gem quality from Nigeria	T. Lind, K. Schmetzer and H. Bank	40
Visual optics without the gloom	J. B. Nelson	49
An unusual star diamond	S. J. A. Currie	52
Gemmological abstracts		53
Book reviews		57
Proceedings of the Gemmological Association and Association notices		59

Copyright © 1986

Gemmological Association of Great Britain

Registered Office: Saint Dunstan's House, Carey Lane, London EC2V 8AB