

1 Editorial

COLUMNS

2 What's New

Studies of tourmaline magnetism, HPHT-treated diamond and CVD synthetic diamond | Updated CIBJO Blue Books | Gem laboratory newsletters | New JVC Essential Guides | MIM Mineral Museum

6 Practical Gemmology

Photomicrography using a smartphone camera

8 Gem Notes

Colourless cat's-eye apatite | Prismatic Ethiopian aquamarine | Blue chrysocolla chalcedony | Painite specimen discovery | Tanzanite as a stinkstone | Beaded cultured pearl misidentified as natural | Micro-focus X-radiography | Quahog pearl | Parcel of melec-size yellow-brown diamonds containing synthetics | Visit to Mogok, Myanmar

20 Learning Opportunities

Conferences, exhibits and other educational events

ARTICLES

Feature Articles

24 Galileo as Gemmologist: The First Attempt in Europe at Scientifically Testing Gemstones

By A. Mottana

32 Purple to Reddish Purple Chrysoberyl from Brazil

By Karl Schmetzer, Jaroslav Hryšl, Heinz-Jürgen Bernhardt and Thomas Hainschwang

42 Identification Characteristics of Natural and Imitation Hornbill Ivory

By Jie Liang, Haibo Li, Taijin Lu, Jun Zhang, Meidong Shen and Jun Zhou

Gemmological Brief

50 Detection of Ruby Crystals in Marble Host Rock by X-ray Computed Tomography

By Antonia Bouts

55 Excursions

Two trips to Mogok, Myanmar, in December 2013

69 From the Archives

Some Unusual Structures in Pearls and Cultured Pearls

By Robert Webster

73 Conferences

IGE Congress and FEEG Symposium | AGA and NAJA Tucson conferences

78 Gem-A Notices

80 New Media

84 Literature of Interest

Cover Photo:

Rough and cut gems (spinel, ruby and moonstone) photographed at the home of a mine owner in Mogok, Myanmar. Two field reports on Mogok appear in the Excursions section of this issue. Photo by Marco Lorenzoni.