Each year in London, Gem-A hosts the world's most prestigious gemmological conference

Gem-A's annual conference in London is a highlight of the year for the gemmological community with its globally renowned speakers, international delegates and unparalleled networking opportunities. The history and prestige of Gem-A, coupled with an exceptional venue in Central London, makes this one of the must-attend events of the gemmological calendar.

We would love for you to be a sponsor of the Gem-A Conference this year. With our international audience of gemmology professionals and students, as well as key players in the gem and jewellery trade, supporting our conference will give you optimal visibility and reach world-wide.

There are five packages for sponsors, details of which are enclosed in this brochure. On behalf of Gem-A, I very much hope that you will consider supporting our conference.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best wishes,

Cath Hill

Global Community

Sponsoring the Gem-A Conference 2026 is a great opportunity to reach a wide audience of engaged, global members, aspiring gemmologists and experienced professionals by appearing in our publications.

Gem-A produces two magazines four times a year.

Gems&Jewellery is a digital magazine that is available to our members, including Gem-A students around the world.

The Journal of Gemmology is available digitally to our students but also as a print edition that is distributed to more than 2,100 professionals across the globe. It is available at various libraries, universities, institutions, and publishing agencies and it is indexed by many important scholarly databases.

Why Become a Conference Sponsor ?

Aligning your brand with the Gem-A Conference offers a unique opportunity to position your organisation at the heart of the global gemmological community. As the flagship event in our industry, the conference is known for its thought leadership, innovation, and prestige.

By sponsoring, you will gain:

- Direct access to an influential audience of decision-makers and thought leaders.
- A platform to showcase your products and services to a discerning and engaged network.
- Opportunities to develop strategic relationships and foster meaningful business growth.
- Enhanced brand visibility, credibility, and recognition within a prestigious, international context.
